During the year of 2006-2008 Lithuanian Association of Lithuanian Museums implemented a project called "Development of the 21st Century Museologist's Qualifications and Capabilities". Nowadays it becomes clear that a museum as an active and successful centre of social life and education can become due to people working in it only. To be more specific – their professional and social qualifications. The aim the training of museums' specialists and administrators is to improve their qualification in common, professional and social fields. Both European Social Fund and Lithuanian State funded this project with 1, 12 million EUR.

During the year of 2009-2011 Association of Lithuanian Museums together with is partners took their efforts further and implemented another project called "Development of the 21st Century Museologist's Qualifications and Capabilities: 2nd Stage". European Social Fund and Lithuanian State this time funded the project together with 0, 66 million EUR.

During the year of 2011 – 2015 Association of Lithuanian Museums implemented a project "Museum - School - Student. Museums and secondary schools in the National Network of Partnership" (project no. VP1-2.2-MES-10-V-02-012).

Short profile of organization:

Association of Lithuanian Museums is a voluntary non-profit organization standing for museums around Lithuania. Established by active and experienced museum professionals in 1995 the Association then created a common ground of cooperation for 39 Lithuanian museums. Association is a well-established and independent organization proudly representing Lithuanian museums and capable for implementing large scale European funded socially orientated projects. Museum professionals gathered under the umbrella of the Association are keen on materializing main values of creativity, lifelong learning and social bonding through projects aimed to developing competences of museum personnel and developing tight connections between school and museum.

The Association also plays an active role in encouraging innovation and dissemination of museological thought through publishing "Lithuanian Museums", possessing a rich and open on demand library of thematic literature and yearly awarding the most outstanding people in the field.
