

- I offer my expertise to participate as a Partner in a Horizon Europe Project
- I am planning to coordinate a project and I am looking for Project Partners

TOPICS OF INTEREST

My research lines and topics of interest in view of this call concern: digital transformation of everyday and professional life (as well as «smart city»); techno-ageism (exclusion of older people from the digital sphere) and related technostress; changes in the post-Covid digital urban environment and their social consequences; perspectives of scientific research of the digital city in the post-pandemic period.

I list below the topics where I can see a clear potential contribution of my expertise but I'm open to discussing a contribution to other topics if project coordinators are interested in expertise in these fields. My main focus is on urban study but a lot of my research on these topics involves digital technologies as well.

DESTINATION 3 - INNOVATIVE RESEARCH ON SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATIONS

HORIZON-CL2-2021-TRANSFORMATIONS-01-03: Determining key drivers of inequality trends

Description of the (Research) Team

I am a sociologist, a researcher from Belarusian State University, I'm working in cooperation with Belarusian NGO "Good City", our sphere of interests - digital transformation of post-pandemic cities - data-based decisions, involving citizens in using ICTs, bridging the digital divide. I lead a team of experts, working on research on sustainable urban environment (post-pandemic cities, public spaces and civil society, local communities and self-governance, open data and digital technologies in the urban environment).

Expertise of the Team Leader

I have ample expertise in sociological research of urban environment (qualitative and quantitative methods), and conducting training courses concerning communicative aspects of creating public spaces (local communities, self-governance and so on). More recently, I am also working on analysis of the digital transformation of the urban environment.
